Regarding WestConnex; I have gone from having one chest infection a year to multiple since the start of WestConnex. The dust/dirt on our front porch is never ending and impossible to keep clean. Also, the constant road/street changes is a nightmare and really difficult to keep up with. What used to take me a simple 3 minute drive to Woolworths, now involves me trying to cross 6 lanes of traffic across the Princes Highway within 20 metres in order to take a left turn to get there. There has been very little effort to make WestConnex the least disruptive as possible.
